

ANGLO-CATHOLIC HISTORY SOCIETY

The Community of Reparation to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and the Church of St Alphege, Southwarkage

The Society's new book, by Michael Yelton, describes the growth and decline of a little-known but very interesting community of sisters founded in Southwark, and of the church of St Alphege, with which they were closely concerned. It also describes the life of Father A.B. Goulden, the founder, a life which contains a number of surprises. The author has also tried to analyse the background of the sisters: they were not aristocratic as were some other orders but rather came mostly from middle-class or skilled working-class families.

The cost is £12 per copy, £20 for two. Because of the steep rise in postage costs overseas, copies are £22 per copy.

You may pay by transfer to the Society account: the name is that of the Society, sort code 09-01-55 and account 06043088. If you do that, please send notification of your order by email to mpyelton@achs.org.uk. Alternatively please send a cheque to the address in the Order Form below.

N.B. No orders will be fulfilled until after the launch at Southwark Cathedral on 9th May 2022, and the author intends to be away in early June so there may then be some delay in dealing with requests.
